Local Department.

Hon. C. D. Lawton was a welcome visitor at this office Monday.

Judge Heckert left Monday for Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, on business.

Mr. Geo. Rowe, of Bangor, visited the NORTHERNER one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blaisdell, of Arlington, are visiting friends in town.

L. A. Tabor and O. N. Hilton are going to open a law office in Pueblo, Colorado.

Oil Inspector Haigh was investigating the specific gravity of things in this place last week.

Mrs. Jas. A. Leech left Tuesday noon for Chelsea, called thither by the serious illness of her mother.

The children's meeting will be held at the First Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

On invitation, the ladies of the W. C.
T. U. will meet at Mrs. Murdoch's Friday afternoon of this week at 2:30.

Special communication of Paw Paw Lodge No. 25, Tuesday evening, June 25th, at 7 o'clock sharp. Work on second.

Lewis Sharron, a veteran of the late war, died of paralysis at South Haven Monday morning. He was 81 years old.

Now that our new railroad is about the same as an assured fact, the question of electric lights is being considered.

Eli Bierce and family have moved back from Kalamazoo, thoroughly convinced that Paw Paw is good enough for them.

Joe Jennings is enjoying a visit from his brother Emanuel, of Brooklyn, N.
Y., who thinks of making Michigan his future home.

Mine host Showerman, of the Clifton house, has been painting, papering and decorating the interior of his hostlerie, until it fairly shines again.

Hon. A. S. Dyckman was among our callers last week. He is busy with our new railroad enterprise and has firm faith in its ultimate fruition.

For the first time under Sheriff Mc-Farlin's administration the jail was tenantless for five days last week, and it now has but one occupant.

Mr. Sidney Cox exhibited to us peas and potatoes from his garden large enough for use. Pretty good for June 17th, especially for such a season.

We hereby acknowledge, with thanks, an invitation to attend the exercises of commencement week, June 23 to 26, of the Ypsilanti State Normal school.

Invitations are out for the marriage to-morrow of Wm. L. Morey, of Glenn, Allegan county, and Miss Lottie B.
Sheldon, at the residence of Miss Lucy Bangs.

Rev. E. H. Harvey will deliver the baccalaureate address before the graduating class of the Paw Paw high school, on Sunday evening next, at the Disciple church.

Frank Bowen and W. W. Smith have traded farms. As each considers himself one thousand dollars richer than before the deal, it must have been a good trade.

At six o'clock this evening, Miss Mamie Koons, daughter of Geo. W.
Koons, Esq., of this place, will be married at the home of her parents to Mr.
W. R. Fossell, of Chicago.

Bartram & Millington, not satisfied with selling the finest baking powder on the market at a low price, actually give away a 12x16 looking glass with every pound sold. See their adv.

The 4th of July is generally considered to be about the proper date to do the green-peas-and-potatoes-act in this locality, but Jim Leech boasts of dining from that bill of fare last Sunday.

To compensate for the cold and backward weather which has characterized the season thus far, we are now having a class of weather which makes corn and farmers and other garden sals laugh.

Our neighboring exchanges are speaking in very complimentary terms of a lecture, "Asbury and His Times," which Rev. W. I. Cogshall, presiding elder of this district has been delivering recently.

Bartram & Millington's horse, attached to their delivery wagon, took fright at a clap of thunder during the storm yesterday morning and ran away. It was caught north of the fair grounds.
Damage slight.

A travelling artist has been doing some fine work in lettering and designing on glass fronts. We noticed especially neat jobs on Walt Wilson's market, Ed. Nash's grocery and Bennett's restaurant.

A horse, standing in front of the First National bank during the storm Tuesday morning, was knocked down by an electric shock. W. H. Filley had an umbrella knocked out of his hand by the same agency.

The Woman's Mission society of the Free Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Barton Saturday afternoon of this week. Each lady is requested to bring a small bundle of anything she may choose.

Junia J. Warner, a former Paw Paw boy, will be married at Taylorsville, Ky., on Monday of next week to Miss Ethel Lindsey King. Mr. and Mrs. E.
L. Warner will attend the wedding, leaving here on Friday.

The Otego base ball team will play at Lawton next Saturday. This is one of the best amateur teams in the state.
They recently defeated the Lawtons at Otego by a score of 4 to 1. A good game may be expected.

Walter H. Wilson bought one day last week of Samuel Consalus three 3-years-old steers, the aggregate weight of which was 4460 lbs., and on Monday he bought fourteen 2-years-olds of Geo.
W. Lyle, the lot weighing 17750 lbs.

The Union house was again opened to the public last Monday. Mr. Lee appearing in the title role. The house has been re-modeled internally, sample rooms provided for traveling men, and wears fresh coats of paint outside and in.

A bill allowing county clerks $1.25 for issuing marriage licenses, instead of 50 cents as at present, passed the senate in good shape the other day, but the house was in no humor for doing good natured things, and "sat down" on the whole scheme.

Tom Burgess went to Chicago last week in quest of talent for Burgess & Wilson's variety show. He returned Friday, accompanied by an elaborate buttonaire. The talent will see us later.
And the waters, in their tireless search for their level, still run down hill.

The Chinese family, at First Baptist church last Thursday evening, were greeted with a good house and gave perfect satisfaction. The bazaar in the lower room did a good business--almost every lady buying at least one article to add to her list of curios.

Geo. E. Breck visited with the family of his brother-in-law, Dr. Bulson, at Jackson, last week. They live in the house owned and occupied by Mrs.
Latimer at the time of her murder, and Mr. Breck occupied the room in which the unnatural crime was committed.

Broughton has rigged up a convenient currency for the little folks to use when they "play show." He sells so many different articles for a nickel--any and all of which can be subdivided down to any infinitesimal coin used by the young managers. His adv. in to-day's paper explains the whole business.

The Paw Paw Courier of last week misrepresented the facts concerning Mr.
A. C. Cross' visit to that village last week. He went there on his own individual responsibility to inspect the merits of the "bat churn," and not as a delegate of the Business Men's association.--Bangor Democrat.

C. C. Searls and John Searls and family left for Grand Rapids on Monday.
Mrs. C. C. Searls will remain here until the summer millinery season is over, when she too will go. These families will be much missed by a large circle of acquaintance in which they have become universal favorites.

Rev. B. Roberts, pastor of the African M. E. church of Battle Creek, was in town a day or two last week soliciting funds for the payment of a mortgage on his parsonage. He informed us that he met with success here. The reverend gentleman is a relative of Lew. Roberts, of this place.

Since the price of hard cider at Decatur has been reduced to 20 cents per gallon--"man cider"--we notice that the length of the snakes killed in that vicinity has increased from 4 feet 11 to 11 feet 4. Another reduction of five cents per gallon and they will be reporting sea serpents in the Lake-of-the-Woods.

Dick Hayes is on his regular annual visit to friends here--having a 30-days' furlough from the soldier's home. He is looking first rate and says he is in excellent health. Aside from his pension, he gets $9 a month for services in the military department of the home, and is thus accumulating quite a little sum of money.

Frank Tucker, with an enlarged and strengthened company, will produce "The Two Orphans" at Longwell's opera house next Monday evening. Mr.
Tucker was very successful throughout the state with this play last season, receiving favorable notices for the artistic manner in which he costumed and produced the piece. Admission, 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seats at Longwell's without extra charge.

Considerable anxiety has been felt regarding the cherry crop in this vicinity, but Mr. Lawrence Martin, the most extensive grower in this region, informs us that the crop will be fully up to the average. The same may be said of grapes. If nothing happens to his crop from now on to maturity, Mr. Martin will ship one hundred tons of grapes.

Work commenced last Monday on the new building which is to occupy the vacant lot between Longwell Bro's and Fred Bisharow's stores. Charles Northrup, of Hartford, is the owner of the property and will build the same height and length as the two stores between which his is to stand. Dick Setchfield has the contract for the stone and brick work, which means that the work will be first-class, while a Lawrence man will do the joiner work.

Miss Mary Bryar kindly furnishes us with a list of those who this year graduated from her (grammar) department.
The exercises will be held in the high school room on the 26th inst. The programme will be published next week.
Following is the class. Fanny Averill, Bertha Wise, Julia Harrison, Jessie Harrison, Daisy Longwell, Sadie Whitman, Sabra Stanton, Lillie Smith, Lillie Welch, Trudie Payne, Dora Colby, Edith Newell, LaRue Mosier, Harry Bryar, Jimmie Phillips, Percy Northrup, Irving Copeland.

The wool market brightened up a little last week, and the purchases by our several dealers aggregated 15,000 pounds at an average price of 29 cents.
For a few extra fine lots as high as 32 1/2 cents was paid. Van Auker got over one-half of all that was offered--his purchases footing up fully 8,000 pounds.
Conner & Osborn came next with 5,000 pounds, and J. T. Clapp secured 2,000 pounds. Shearing is now in full blast, and larger quantities of the staple will be offered from now on till the clip is in the warehouses of the buyers. It is not thought, however, that the price will be any better.

The appointment of Mr. Geo. H. Remington as postmaster at Bangor probably completes the list of removals in this county before the expiration of the terms of the present incumbents. Certain it is that no one having a right to express the sentiments of the people will ask for a change here. Of course there are those who, if they could name his successor, would be pleased to have Mr. McKellar removed, but they are of the class whose sole claim to recognition is their inordinate love of "pawp." We congratulate the people of Bangor in the selection of Mr. Remington for this important position.

The Bellevue Gazette of the 6th inst., in an article descriptive of the Memorial day exercises at that place, refers in very complimentary terms to Hon. Chas.
L. Eaton, who delivered the address.
In the course of its remarks the Gazette says: "The address of Hon. Chas. L.
Eaton was one especially fitting to the occasion, and has received very flattering comments from all who listened to it. The speaker digressed somewhat from the usual line followed by orators on similar occasions, and certainly gave much greater satisfaction than had he dwelt upon the stereotyped topics so often listened to in the past." At the next regular meeting of Jas. B. Mason Post No. 213, after Memorial day, a resolution was introduced "tendering a vote of thanks to the Hon. C. L. Eaton for his very able and eloquent address on memorial day." The NORTHERNER is pleased to hear such pleasant words spoken of a citizen whom we all delight to honor.

It must not be inferred because the Cleveland Bay Horse Co. is not in print all the time that it is no longer in existence. This is one of the concerns of which Paw Paw is proud. The personnel of the company is of our best material --young, energetic, alert business men, with no shadow of old-foginess about any of them. They have some sixteen stallions in the stud, and their herd comprises a large number of fillies, brood mares and colts. This company purchased the fair grounds some two years ago for the accommodation of their stock, and have them finely fitted up. They have ample shed and stable room, and a number of yards and small paddocks, where exercise can be given their stock and where brood mares and their young colts can run unmolested.
A comfortable dwelling house for the superintendent of stock and an office for the transaction of a certain class of their business were found necessary and erected. A visit to these grounds will well repay the trouble.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning, during a heavy rain storm which was accompanied by terrific peals of thunder and lurid flashes of lightning, the house of Mr. James Burk, just south of the race on Kalamazoo street, was struck by lightning and his wife, Mrs.
Margaret Burk, terribly though not fatally shocked. The current had entered the building by a chimney on the south end of the house, followed the flue downwards, and at each aperture for the admission of stove pipe the fluid had left the chimney and swept the partition walls on either side clear of lath and plastering and fairly pulverized the studding. The rooms on the upper floor were strewn with the debris from the walls. Mrs. Burk and her son, a lad of some 14 or 15 years, were standing in the dining room, an uncarpeted apartment in the south-east corner of the house, near a small heating stove. As the current entered the room, by blowing the stove open and scattering its contents over the floor, Mrs. B. fell, but was caught in the arms of her son and carried to a couch. A physician was on the spot at once and found that the left foot had received the current, which thence entered the floor. The lady was seen an hour after the occurrence. She complained of numbness of the limb from the knee down and a twitching, drawing sensation in the muscles of the left side of the neck. The floor of the room was splintered and furrowed and scarred terribly.
